

DV Champion: Fact Sheet

What is a Champion for Change? Self-identified members of a community who lead efforts to: Educate, Activate and Get Involved those who want to learn how to recognize the signs of domestic violence/relationship violence and help prevent it from occurring before it happens.

How do I learn more? Provide a wallet card, go to champion for change website at www.icfs.org/DVChampion, educate yourself and download tools, get involved at a level most comfortable to you.

What ways can I help?

- Be an ambassador – Share what you know with your network.
- Roll up your sleeves – Help us get prevention programs into more schools.
- Special Events planning and support – Volunteer, attend, sponsor and/or donate items for our Love is Brewing event held each Spring, Hope & Harvest each Fall or Paint It Purple™ DV campaign in October.
- Give what you can – Less than $20 to prevent a child or teen from experiencing abuse in the future.
- Anything else? – “Like” Interface Children & Family Services on Facebook, follow us on Twitter, subscribe to our YouTube channel and share our postings and videos with others.

Strengthening children, families and communities to be safe, healthy and thriving

Mental Health · Youth and Family Strengthening · Family Violence Intervention · 2-1-1 Information and Referral · Center for Community Development

4001 Mission Oaks Blvd, Suite I · Camarillo, CA 93013-5121 · icfs.org · 805.485.6114